RAC AGM

Our AGM was held 28 February and was well attended. Especially appreciated was the strong representation from our politicians. Myann Burrows presented her Annual President's Report, sadly her last one as she stepped down after eight years with Redlands Arts Council, the last six as President. We also received the final Treasurer's Report from Robert Quail, who has admirably steered the Arts Council into financial stability. Although Myann and Robert will remain as members of the RAC, they now intend to indulge in some "me" time, and have a few wonderful trips around the country and abroad planned. It was with great pleasure and grateful thanks to Myann and Robert that they were awarded Life Membership.

We welcome our new committee, and you will notice some new blood ...

Delivering her final President's Report at the Redland Arts Council's AGM on 28 February, Myann Burrows pictured with husband Robert Quail, have both been valuable and inspired leaders of the Arts in the Redlands.

Myann and Robert received Life Membership of the RAC, a plaque each for their services and an orchid as a special farewell gift.
